Notes for Barton Baxter Lyon:

Moved to Ohio circa 1834.

In December 1849, Baxter and Sarah came to Whiteside County, IL, making the journey from Medina Co., Ohio with teams, and they located two miles south of Morrison where Baxter bought one hundred and sixty acres of land with a state script. Upon his place he built a frame house, 24x26 feet, and a story and a half in height, doing most of the carpenter work himself. [Biographical Record of Whiteside County, 1900.] Described as "a substantial structure, considered a mansion in those days, and is still standing" in biography of John G. Plumley in History of Whiteside County, pg. 1454.

"It was a substantial structure, considered a mansion in those days, and is still standing, a mute witness of the many changes and events that have here occurred, whereby the county has been transformed from a wild, unimproved district into one of rich fertility. Mr. Lyon was quite successful in his farming operations, the fields being made to produce rich crops whereby he added materially to his income year by year. He continued to reside upon the old homestead until his demise." [History of Whiteside County, 1908, v. 2 p. 1454]

"The first winter it was only sided up and was not lathed and plastered and the family suffered very much from the cold. In fact, during the first two winters they experienced many hardships and [de]privations, incident to life on the frontier. Upon his farm Baxter also built a shop and did black smithing for his neighbors. As his financial resources increased, he bought more land, until he owned nearly seven hundred acres; and he was one of the most active, enterprising and prominent farmers of the county. Selling his property near Morrison, he moved to Tampico Township, where he resided for a few years, and later he moved to Harvey County, Kansas, where he opened up a new farm and became the owner of six hundred acres. There he died on his seventy-third birthday." (This conflicts with the Biographical record of Marcus Ruel Lyon, published in 1900, as recorded by Barton Baxter's granddaughter Mina Lyon.) [Biographical Record of Whiteside County, 1900]

1880 census for Tampico Twp., Whiteside Co., IL shows Baxter Lyon, age 63, living with June, wife, age 43, and son Willie, age 8. He is listed as a farmer.

Notes for Marcus Ruel Lyon:

Marcus' middle name, Ruel, was the first name of his aunt Sarah M. Lyon's husband, Ruel Hurlburt. slh

" Marcus R. Lyon was about four years old when brought by his parents to this county, and he was educated in the common schools of Morrison, which he attended only during winter months, the summer season being occupied with work on the home farm. After reaching manhood, he had charge of the place until twenty-five years of age. When nineteen years old he began running a threshing machine, and later bought and operated a horsepower machine for several years. Still later, he owned a steam thresher and also a corn-sheller, and now for over thirty-four years, he has engaged in threshing, first around Morrison and later near his present home in Tampico Township." (Taken from "The Biographical Record of Whiteside County, Illinois". Published 1900)

In the 1880 census for Tampico Twp., Whiteside Co., Illinois, Marcus Lyon and wife Minerva are listed with six children; Lottie, Lewis (spelling unclear on census), Grace, Hubert, and a baby shown as born in May, 1880, which is likely Kate. Two servants are listed; Auinis (sp?) Johnston and Annie Johnson, both white, age 20. He is listed as a hand man working on the farm, Annie is listed as a servant. Their place of birth is believed to be "Sindue," although it is unclear. Checking the Websters Dictionary, Sind is listed as a region of Pakistan in the lower Indus River Valley. slh

"Marcus Lyon, general farmer and stock-raiser, residing on section 6, Tampico Township, was born in Medina Co., O., Feb. 27, 1845, his parents being Daxter [sic] and Sarah A. (Vaughn) Lyon, who after marriage, emigrated to Illinois, when Marcus was five years of age, settling in Mt. Pleasant Township, this county.

Mr. Lyon, the subject of this biographical notice, was educated at the district schools and at Morrison, and remained an inmate of his paternal home until he was 25 years of age, when, Feb. 2, 1870, he was married, in Wyoming, Jones Co., Iowa, to Miss Minerva Miller, a native of Indiana, who was reared and educated in Iowa, where her parents are now living. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon have become the parents of seven children, namely: Lottie, Lewis, Gracie, Hulbert, Katie, Rhoda, and Martha. The last named is deceased.

After marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Lyon settled on a farm of 120 acres in Mt. Pleasant Township, this county, where they lived until March, 1875, when they moved to Tampico. Here Mr. L. had purchased a quarter section of good land, and after settling on the same bought 80 acres more on section 6, so that he now has a fine farm of 240 acres, all improved.

In his political views, Mr. Lyon is a Republican." [Portrait and Biographical Album of Whiteside County, Illinois. Chapman Brothers (pub), Chicago, 1885]

Lines on the death of Gracie, daughter of Marcus and Minerva LYON, of Tampico township, who died October 2nd, 1886; aged 11 years, 6 months, 11 days.

Gracie though called away in thy youthful days,
Remembered thou will be for they winning ways,
And the patience manifested in those trying hours,
Can we forget the same also they love of flowers,
In all the scenes of life, at home or at school,
Ever want thou ready to observe the Golden Rule,
Loved by those with whom you were called to part,
Your youthful virtues will impress the heart,
Of all who realize the words they oft have heard you sing,
"Nearer my God to Thee" who are my Savior and my King.

Rho Sigma Gamma, College Band, Married. It includes the following statement: " 'Chuck' is a fearless recruit in the ranks of the Benedictines, and he says it didn't require any bravery to join the army. Blows his own horn (in the Band)."

Graduated June 11, 1914, Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. The commencement program lists his undergraduate thesis as "Study of Physical Characteristics of Automobile Oils," written with Herbert Sigfrid Selindh.

In 1916, when son Jim was born, Chuck & Minerva lived at 226 E. Barlett St., South Bend, Indiana.

In 1920 "Chas. Henry" and Minerva Hartnell appear in the census at 3001 Park Avenue, Indianapolis, IN. The house number is not definite. At the time Jim's age is shown as 3 6/12. This is inaccurate, however, as the census was taken on January 21, 1920, which would have made Jim 3 years, 1 month, and 14 days old. Chuck's profession is listed as "Special Agent" in the "Fire Insurance" business. The census indicated they owned their home, although Doris Hartnell reported that Chuck did not own a home until long after the boys were gone from home.

Residence at the time of Minerva's death on October 19, 1920, is listed as 823 Crescent Place, (Ward 25) Chicago, IL. See certificate of death #28698, State of Illinois.

The 1930 census shows Charles H. and Dorothy living with William, James and Martha J. at 748 Chitty Avenue, Akron, OH, along with a servant, Lucy Benson (last name uncertain). Dorothy's parents are listed as Canada-French. Chuck's occupation is listed as "Manager" at an "Adjustment Company." Lucy is listed as a white female, age 18, born in Pennsylvania, her parents also coming from Pennsylvania. At the time of the census Bill is listed as age 15, Jim as 13, and Martha Jean as 1 1/2. Doris did not remember there ever being a live-in servant, and commented that she would be very surprised that Dot would have anyone living with them.

Marriage Notes for Minerva Lyon and Charles Hartnell:

Newspaper announcements:

"Chuck" Hartnell a Benedict. Miss Minerva Lyons [sic] and Charles Hartnell were married at Prophetstown, Ill, Wednesday, January 17th. The announcement is rather a surprise to "Chuck's" many friends here, as it was not surmised that he was contemplating any such a move when he left here with Miss Lyons after they had spent the holiday season at the Hartnell home here. However the good wishes will be none the less sincere for a long and happy life for the young people. The young people went immediately where they will start to housekeeping and make their home.

Tampico Tornado, Thursday, January 25, 1912:

Miss Minerva Lyon Married. Wednesday afternoon last week at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. W. Olmstead in Prophetstown occurred the marriage of Miss Minerva Lyon of Tampico, and Charles Hartnell, of Stacyville, Iowa.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only a few of the close relatives of the bride being present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. R. McNamer.

Mrs. Hartnell is a young lady well known in Prophetstown, where she has lived more or less for the past two years with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Olmstead, and during that time has assisted Mr. Olmstead as bookkeeper, and collector in his business. She is a very capable young lady, highly cultured and of pleasing address. She has many friends in town whom she has won since her coming. She is a daughter of Mrs. M.R. Lyon of this place.

Mr. Charles Hartnell, a sophomore in the Mechanical Engineering course at the college, was married last Wednesday evening to Miss Minerva Lyon, at her home in Sterling, Illinois. They spent several days in Chicago before returning to Ames Friday for Mr. Hartnell to resume his work. "Chuck" is a member of the Rho Sigma Gamma fraternity and several of his fraternity brothers pulled off a cruel one on him Friday evening. A number of them followed Mr. and Mrs. Hartnell and friends to the Princess theater and then put up a big sign over their seats on which was painted "Just Married." This called for the spotlight and everyone in the theater enjoyed a good laugh at "Chuck's" expense. Everybody's wishes are for the best for Mr. and Mrs. Hartnell and we are glad to see them remain in Ames.
